SUMMARY OF FATAL ACCIDENTS

Mr. Herbert Arthur Crosby, age 39, married, one dependent child, came to his death as the result of injuries sustained when he was caught under a fall of slate about 10:15 a.m. January 29, 1957, at the Peabody Coal Company's No. 17 mine, located at Pana, Christian County, Illinois, where he was employed as a pipeman. He had 6 years of experience at this mine.

The deceased, Herbert Arthur Crosby, was killed instantly by a fall of slate, three crosscuts back from the face, while looking for a pipe valve at the back of a repair truck on "A" entry 2N-2W-3SW. The piece of slate that fell is 9 feet by 10 feet, and 2 feet thick on one side, feathering out to a thin edge on three sides.

The entry is 14½ feet wide, and the crosscut at the point of accident is 19 feet wide and 6 feet 2 inches high before the slate fell. His death was due to internal injuries caused by a crushed body. Estimated weight of the slate that fell is about 2½ tons.

Mr. Aaron Dean, age 55, married, two dependent children, came to his death January 29, 1957, at 9:05 a.m., while at work for the Midland Electric Coal Corporation, at their Middle Grove No. 2 mine, in Fairview Township, Fulton County, Illinois, from crushing injuries, after being accidentally run over by a loaded car of coal. He had worked at this mine 24 years.

Aaron Dean, a trackman, had been detailed by the track foreman to clean snow from the switch points and frogs of discharge tracks. These points were about 450 feet from the preparation plant. Due to falling or being knocked down by the cars, Mr. Dean was run over by three loaded cars being dropped down into the storage yards.

Oren Botkins, car rider, who was riding the first two cars, was between the cars, due to the location of the brake. He stated that at no time did he observe or hear any person on or near the tracks. These tracks were free of obstructions and the visibility was good. A third car, being ridden by Carl Rogers, also passed over the body. Neither car rider was aware that anything had happened, until Roger's car stopped and he got down from the car to start it again.

Looking up the track, he saw the body of Mr. Dean laying between the rails. Both car riders stated that the cars were traveling at less than a walking pace. The investigation showed that, because of very close clearance between the hopper doors underneath car and track ties, the body received serious crushing injuries, resulting in death.

There were no eye witnesses to the accident. Danger signs are posted in yards, and also warning signals are used to warn when cars get out of control.

Mr. Otto Mack, age 54, married, no dependent children, came to his death by accident at about 7:35 p.m. January 18, 1957, in the Little Dog Coal Company's Little Dog mine, located at Gillespie, Macoupin County, Illinois, where he was employed as a loading machine helper. Mr. Mack had 11 years experience at this mine.

The loading machine, a "Caterpillar"-mounted Joy type 11 BU, was being advanced toward the face of room 2, 15 east, 5 north, when the digging arm on the right side of the machine struck some bottom coal 5 inches in thickness. This coal had been left from a previous cut. Striking the coal caused the machine head to make a quick and forceful swing to the right. In so doing, it struck and dislodged a prop which had been set for roof support.

Mr. Mack, the deceased, was standing between the prop and rib. The dislodged prop struck the victim across the face and left temple, causing almost instant death.

Mr. Orville R. Jones, age 45, married, one dependent child, came to his death when he was hit by a fall of clod at approximately 5:00 a.m. on March 13, 1957, while operating a loading machine at the Peabody Coal Company's No. 17 mine, Pana, Christian County, Illinois, where he was employed as a roof bolter. He had worked at this mine 4 years.

The deceased, Orville R. Jones, was operating a loading machine at the time of the accident. He was regularly employed in a crew of six men who help each other as in gang work.

He had drilled and shot that place sometime before and had just relieved the regular loading machine operator. He was loading out the center of the room when a piece of rock fell, measuring 6 feet in length and 4 feet wide, averaging about 7 inches in thickness, striking the deceased and crushing his head against the loading machine, causing almost instant death.

The room had been roof bolted within approximately 3½ feet of the face before it was shot. As a working place is loaded out, this plan of bolting permits the operator to advance about 2 feet beyond the last roof bolts.

Mr. John F. Williams, age 42, married, four dependent children, employed as a tractor operator, died in the Graham Hospital, Canton, Illinois, at 6:00 p.m. on March 25, 1957, of a cardio-respiratory failure due to injuries sustained in an accidental collision of two trucks at the Truax-Traer Coal Company's Red Ember Mine, Fiatt, Fulton County, Illinois, at 10:00 a.m. on March 25, 1957. He had 22 years of experience at this mine.

The accident occurred on the haulage road one mile southeast of the coal preparation plant at the junction to pit No. 1. This junction lies in a valley at the foot of three inclines. The road, on which the accident occurred, runs in a northwest and southeast direction, and the branch road to pit No. 1 at the junction runs in a southerly direction. No traffic was operating on this road at the time of the accident. This junction and the point where the accident occurred is on a level stretch of road approximately 900 feet long, approachable on the north and south end by inclines. The weather was very bad the day of the accident, snowing very heavily and blowing. The operators of the two road patrols had been called out to work at 12:00 a.m. on Monday morning to plow the snow from the haulage roads before the days work commenced, however, snow continued to fall and the roads were in a slushy condition at the time of the accident. The width of the haulage road under normal conditions is 60 feet, however, the road patrols had pushed snow to the sides of the road and the clearance measured 35 feet at the place where the accident occurred.

Allen Jackson, driving a loaded refuse truck, was followed by Russell Van Dyke, who was driving an empty coal haulage truck, both trucks traveling in a southerly direction at an approximate speed of about 25 miles an hour. Approaching these two trucks, from the south traveling north, was an empty refuse truck. As soon as the empty refuse truck had passed the two trucks going south, Russell Van Dyke, driver of the empty coal truck, started to pull out to pass the loaded refuse truck in front of him, and for the first time observed a small service pick-up truck following behind the empty refuse truck. He applied his brake and this caused his truck to jackknife, but the weight of the trailer, which weighs 29 tons empty, forced the front of his truck out into the path of the pick-up truck driven by Ellis Carlton, who is a foreman employed by the company to supervise refuse disposal operations. Riding with him was John Williams, a tractor operator. The trucks crashed together, pinning Mr. Carlton in the cab of the pick-up truck, and the force of the impact evidently threw Mr. Williams against the windshield frame, as he had a deep laceration over the left eye, and then was thrown out the door of the truck to the ground on the right side of the truck.

There was no obstruction to visibility except the weather condition at the time of the accident. Both trucks were reported in good mechanical condition by the maintenance men and the drivers of the trucks before the accident. The windshield wipers of both trucks were in good operating condition, and the condition of the haulage road was as previously stated in this report at the time of the accident.

Mr. Paul Seagraves, age 58, married, no dependent children, came to his death when he was caught and crushed between a shuttle car and the coal rib in room No. 28 in the southwest entry off the 13 main northwest, at approximately 2:00 a.m. April 19, 1957, at the Sahara Coal Company's No. 5 mine, Carrier Mills Township, Saline County, Illinois, where he was employed as a mechanic. He had worked at this mine 5 years.

The victim's duties were to check, repair, and lubricate the electrical and mechanical equipment used in the face region. On the day of this accident, however, there was no report to indicate that the shuttle car involved in the accident was in need of any repair; moreover, this shuttle car had been left near the face of the room at the conclusion of the second shift, and there was no known reason for moving the shuttle car away from the face to within eight feet of the room neck where the accident occurred. The night mine manager reported that he accompanied Mr. Seagraves into the section and talked with him near the loading point at the belt about ten minutes prior to the accident. Shortly afterward, John Romonsky, a member of the rock-dusting crew, working in room No. 30 heard the shuttle car motor running, and, inasmuch as such was unusual, he went into room No. 28 to investigate. Upon arriving there, he found Mr. Seagraves pinned between the shuttle car and the rib, and since Mr. Romonsky was unable to reach the controls, he summoned help. With additional assistance, the recovery crew obtained a loading machine from the face of room No. 28 and used the loading machine and a chain to pull the shuttle car away from the rib in order to free the victim.

It could not be determined why the car was trammed from the face; it is not known whether the victim was making preparation to lubricate the car, but the lack of tools except those contained in the pockets of his clothing did indicate that no repair work was being done. There was no indication of a sudden change of direction which might indicate that the car had gotten out of control in any manner. When found, the mechanic was facing opposite the direction of travel. It is possible, but purely conjectural, that he had stopped the car intending to reverse direction, then restarted the car toward the entry by accidentally pushing the wrong foot control as he changed position.

Clearance on either side of the shuttle car was adequate, the roof was uniform and well supported with roof bolts, the grade was not excessive, and the roadway was not wet and was free of obstructions. Test indicated that the steering mechanism, controls, brakes, and other components of the equipment were in good operating condition, and the deceased was fully capable of operating the car; so in the absence of any eye witness the cause could not be determined.

Mr. Dwight H. Beard, age 43, married, two dependent children, was killed at the Peabody Coal Company's No. 17 mine, Pana, Christian County, Illinois, about 9:20 a.m. on April 14, 1957. He had 2 years and 6 months of experience at this mine.

Mr. Dwight H. Beard, a section foreman, was crushed to death when he was caught between a rib of coal and a Continuous Mining machine that was in motion as he attempted to go around the machine.

Mr. Pierino Bax, age 59, married, no dependent children, was killed at 5:55 p.m. April 12, 1957, at the Crown Mine of the Freeman Coal Mining Corporation, Farmersville, Montgomery County, Illinois. He had worked at this mine 5 years.

Mr. Pierino Bax, employed as a loading machine helper, was killed by a fall of clod and rock in the crosscut off the 30 south, 8 west, while the loading machine was loading in the 30 south entry.

The entire area had been supported by roof bolts and cross bars. Mr. Bax was standing directly under or slightly in by the last row of roof bolts when the fall occurred.

Mr. Domonic Buffo, age 55, married, one dependent child, employed as an electrician, was fatally injured at the Lumaghi Coal Company, Cantine Mine No. 4, Collinsville, Madison County, Illinois, when he was crushed between an empty mine car and the coal rib on May 9, 1957, at 9:03 a.m.; he died three hours later at St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis, Illinois. He had 7 years of experience at this mine.

A motorman was attempting to rerail the car by pulling the car through a switch. The car caught on the curve rail, and, as a result, it was swung toward the rib where Mr. Buffo was standing, crushing him between the car and rib.

Mr. Joe Vukadonovich, age 38, married, two dependent children, and Mr. John Dosen, age 28, married, no dependent children, employed as Continuous Mining machine operators, came to their death at the Old Ben Coal Corporation, Mine No. 14, Buckner, Franklin County, Illinois, at 10:00 a.m. on May 21, 1957, from a fall of top coal while operating a Goodman 400 Continuous Mining machine in the 11 and 12 S., 12 W., 3 N. W. Mr. Vukadonovich had 15 years of experience at this mine. Mr. Dosen had 10 years of experience at this mine.

Mr. Vukadonovich and Mr. Dosen had just finished cutting a cross-cut from the buggy entry to the 12 S. entry. When the cross-cut was cut through, they moved the machine back to the buggy entry and cut the inside corner of the cross-cut to make a better haulage road from the buggy entry to the 12 S. entry which is the belt entry. Just as they were finished cutting off the corner, they cut into the end of a slip that was running at a 30° angle across the mouth of the cross-cut. They stopped the machine, and the operator, John Dosen, put his hand up to the roof, then started the machine to go through the cross-cut. When the machine moved forward, about four tons of coal and rock fell from the slip, killing both men instantly. The slip was about twenty feet long with no sign showing before the machine started to cut the corner.

The roof had been tested by the face boss just shortly before the machine started to cut and showed no indication of any unsafe roof condition.

Mr. John Onderko, age 62, married, no dependent children, came to his death on the 15th day of June, 1957, at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Missouri, from multiple fractures to his head and left chest. He was injured on April 27, 1957, about 1:00 p.m. in the Peabody Coal Company's Mine No. 17 at Pana, Christian County, Illinois, while timbering on the main line road in by 1 N. on 7 W. — 1 S. W. He had 7 years of experience at this mine.

Mr. Onderko, a timberman, was attempting to remove a prop from under a rail bar after a temporary jack was set, and the prop loosened. A piece of slate slipped from the roof of the mine, pinning Mr. Onderko to the floor. The piece of slate that fell from near the rib measured 7 feet 9 inches by 4 feet 8 inches and 18 inches thick on one side feathering out to a thin edge.

Mr. John Frank Linze, age 42, married, three dependent children, came to his death on the 19th day of June, 1957, at approximately 4:30 p.m. by being crushed in the No. 2 coal conveyor at the Truax-Traer Coal Company's Pyramid mine, Pinckneyville, Perry County, Illinois, where he was employed as a preparation plant repairman. He had worked at this mine 17 years.

Mr. Linze was repairing a drive chain on the lump belt in the preparation plant. The preparation plant was not in operation and only repair work was being done at the time. According to his fellow workers, he was standing with one foot in a flight conveyor working on the drive chain. The tippie operator says he sounded the warning signal to start some machinery and also started the flight conveyor to clean out the wash box. When the conveyor started, Mr. Linze was not in the clear, his foot caught under a flight and he was dragged onto the conveyor, causing his death.

Mr. Denzil Eugene Moyers, age 32, married, three dependent children, was killed by falling rock at approximately 10:40 p.m. August 20, 1957, at the Old Ben Coal Corporation, Mine No. 14, located at Buckner, Franklin County, Illinois, where he was employed as a shuttle car operator. He had worked at this mine 7 years.

The deceased, Mr. Denzil Eugene Moyers, was killed by falling rock at a cross-cut intersection between the 22 and 23 east, 15 northeast entries when he backed his shuttle car into the cross-cut where top had been cut out for future loading head.

The top coal and rock was bolted from opposite cross-cut across 22 E. entry to the mouth of the cross-cut but not into the cross-cut, leaving about eight feet of rock not bolted. This part had been scaled of loose rock and was thought to be safe for shuttle car travel. When the deceased backed his shuttle car into the mouth of the cross-cut, a piece of rock weighing about one ton broke off and fell from the roof bolts to brow of top coal, killing Mr. Moyers instantly, who was sitting in the seat of the shuttle car.

Mr. Aaron Childers, age 53, married, no dependent children, a Continuous Miner operator, was killed instantly by a roof fall about 11:50 a.m. August 30, 1957, while operating a Joy 1, Continuous Mining machine at the Bell & Zoller Coal Company's Buckhorn mine, Johnston City, Williamson County, Illinois. He had 8 years of experience at this mine.

He was cutting the face of No. 18 room off 6 N-5, S. E. under supported roof when the accident occurred. This room-neck was 16 ft. wide and 20 ft. in length, the overall length from outside of entry rib to face was 37 ft.

This loading machine is equipped with roof bolt drills, and the roof is bolted as the face advances. The machine helper was drilling a hole in by the operator, which is approximately 15 ft. from the face, preparatory to installation of another bolt, when without warning the roof over the entire area fell, with the exception of a space in the right corner near the face, which probably saved the life of the helper. The fall, sometimes termed a horseback, was $5\frac{1}{2}$ ft. straight up on the left rib to 1 ft. oval shaped on right rib in thickness.

It was noted during the investigation that hidden slip lines extended along both ribs and partly across the face of the room, also a pronounced parting or slip line between the fallen rock and main roof.

The roof in this fallen area was supported by 12 or more $\frac{3}{8}$ " x 60" roof bolts using $\frac{3}{8}$ " x 4" x 4" steel plates, under 3" x 10" wooden blocks. Due to the thickness of the rock, most of the bolts did not extend through the fallen rock enough to be anchored securely in the main roof.

The machine was stopped and the roof tested a few moments prior to the accident.

Mr. Paul E. Jones, age 50, married, no dependent children, employed as a Continuous Mining machine helper, and Mr. John Simko, age 48, married, no dependent children, employed as a face boss, were instantly killed on the morning of September 12, 1957, about 10:30 a.m. by a fall of rock and coal in the 11 north, 21 west main south at the Old Ben Coal Corporation's No. 9 mine, located at West Frankfort, Franklin County, Illinois. Mr. Jones had 11 years of experience at this mine, and Mr. Simko had 23 years of experience at this mine.

A Continuous Mining machine had driven the 11 north, 21 west entry about 15 feet past the location of a new crosscut. The machine was then moved back to drive a new crosscut through to the 12 north entry. In order to turn the crosscut, the machine was started into the rib at about a 60° angle. A continuous curve was cut into the rib until the machine was far enough into the rib to be at about a right angle to the entry. When the machine started to cut the crosscut, a safety jack was set along with two safety props. The machine continued until the crosscut had been cut through to the 12 north entries. When the machine had cut the crosscut through on the left hand rib, it had loaded the buggy part full of coal. When the buggy pulled away from the machine, John Simko, face boss, who was standing at the props called to Paul Jones, machine helper, to come over and help take the curtain down. When Paul Jones crossed over, a fall of rock and coal of about one and one-half tons fell from a slip extending from the inside corner of the crosscut across the mouth of the crosscut and the 11 north entry for a distance of about 15 feet lengthwise the entry, killing both men instantly.

Mr. Earl Carter, age 55, married, one dependent child, and Mr. George Peddicord, age 65, married, no dependent children, were killed September 25, 1957, at the Marion County Coal Mining Corp., Glenridge Mine, Centralia, Marion County, Illinois. Mr. Carter and Mr. Peddicord were employed at this mine as machine operators. Mr. Carter had 37 years of experience at this mine; Mr. Peddicord, 10 years.

They were shooting the 2 southeast entries with a portable airdox shooting machine when clod fell. They had shot the corner off a 45° crosscut and were shooting the face of the entry. It was evident that they had shot out two safety posts and one permanent timber, and had continued shooting without resetting the supports. It appears that Earl Carter was trying to help George Peddicord from under the part of clod when another piece fell and caught him.

Mr. Joseph Williams, age 52, married, one dependent child, died September 29, 1957, from injuries received on September 25, 1957, at 12:30 p.m. from a fall of face coal at the Lumaghi Coal Company, Cantine Mine No. 4, located at Collinsville, Madison County, Illinois, where he was employed as a driller. He had worked at this mine 6 years.

Joseph Williams and Oscar Lochmann were operating a Joy C. D. 31 track mounted coal drill in a crosscut off room 45, 11 right, No. 4 north. Mr. Williams, who was on the left side, was working in between the drill booms. He had just changed to the second auger of the seventh hole and was walking back to the controls between the booms when face coal, weighing between 750 and 1,000 pounds, fell on the drill head. This caused the drill to swing toward the left rib. The control end swung between the booms, striking Mr. Williams and knocking him down and back to the face where some of the coal fell on him.

Mr. James A. Sexton, age 57, married, no dependent children, employed as a Joy Loading Machine operator, was instantly killed by a roof fall at 12:10 p.m. October 29, 1957, at the Bell & Zoller Coal Company's Buckhorn mine, Johnston City, Williamson County, Illinois. He had worked at this mine 10 years and 4 months.

Mr. Sexton was operating a Joy Loading machine, loading coal from a Goodman Continuous Mining machine, midway a crosscut between room 1 and 2, 12 S. W. when the accident occurred.

The roof in this place was considered safe and it has been a practice when driving rooms or entries with the Goodman Continuous Miner, if the roof was considered safe, to advance the face from crosscut to crosscut, a distance of approximately 60 feet, before the installation of roof bolts.

The fallen rock was a semi-oval to feather edge horseback slip, measuring $9\frac{1}{2}$ by 5 feet to 14 inches in thickness at the thickest point and was 37 feet from the face.

ANALYTICAL LABORATORY

The Analytical Laboratory of the Department of Mines and Minerals is located at 413 East Main Street, West Frankfort, Illinois. The Laboratory was established in January of 1948, and temporarily located on the University of Illinois campus. In June 1952 the Laboratory was moved to more permanent quarters in Springfield, Illinois, where it remained until destroyed by fire December 10, 1953.

In May 1954 the Laboratory was moved to West Frankfort, Illinois. The establishment of the Laboratory at West Frankfort, Illinois, was a geographical move which enabled the Laboratory to give quicker service to State Mine Inspectors and Mine Operators. The West Frankfort area is the center of the largest coal producing field in the State of Illinois.

In establishing the Laboratory in January 1948, Illinois became the first State to operate a Laboratory of this type, in connection with its mining department. At the time of the establishment, a study of the Federal Bureau of Mines Laboratory was made and the Department Laboratory adopted methods of analyses and equipment similar to that used by the Federal Bureau of Mines. The Laboratory now has the very latest of modern laboratory equipment.

The purpose of the Laboratory is to analyze for explosive, noxious, and gaseous mixtures in the mining industry. The Laboratory also analyzes mine dust for the determination of the percentages of combustible and incombustible material; thus, aiding the mining industry in the control of flame propagating characteristics of mine dust. Samples of gaseous mixtures may be analyzed and the results reported to the State Mine Inspector within one hour after the samples have been delivered to the Laboratory. In time of emergency, such as mine fires or the sealing of fire areas, the resulting analyses aid inspectors and management in determining procedure to be followed in eliminating the emergency.

During the year 1957 there were 2,820 mine atmosphere samples analyzed and 3,862 coal dust samples were analyzed. Of those analyzed, only 9.6 per cent of mine atmosphere, and 3.5 per cent of mine dust samples did not meet the analyses specified by the Illinois Coal Mining Law.

The Laboratory personnel consists of ten employees:

Geoge W. Sneddon, Supervisor, 411 North Horn, West Frankfort, Ill.
John N. Mitchell, Lab. Technician II, Route 2, West Frankfort, Ill.
Ralph Conover, Lab. Technician II, Route 2, Thompsonville, Ill.
Earl Brookshire, Lab. Technician II, 222 Dobson Street, Carterville, Ill.
Bernice Smothers, Lab. Technician II, Route 1, West Frankfort, Ill.
Eulah Rogers, Clerk-Steno II, 803 East Browing, Marion, Ill.
Priscilla Nicholson, Clerk-Typist I, 1216 East Oak, West Frankfort, Ill.
Elsworth Shepherd, Lab. Helper, Route 2, Thompsonville, Ill.
Arno Stiritz, Lab. Helper, 410 West Tenth, Johnston City, Ill.
Jesse Garrett, Lab. Helper, Route 2, West Frankfort, Ill.

DIVISION OF OIL AND GAS

The Division of Oil and Gas of the Department of Mines and Minerals is required to enforce the provisions of "An Act in Relation to Oil, Gas, Coal and Other Surface and Underground Resources," and the Rules and Regulations formulated pursuant to the provisions of the Act.

It is the duty of the Division to see that oil wells are properly spaced; to control the drilling and plugging of oil wells and wells drilled in connection therewith; to see that necessary precautions are observed to protect the workable coal seams through which wells are drilled and to prevent pollution of land and fresh water supplies resulting from oil field operations.

Permits must be obtained from the Division of Oil and Gas before wells are drilled for oil, gas, watersupply, water input, gas input, air input, salt water disposal, and structure test. In 1957, 4,432 such permits were issued. The Law requires that for each well drilled or acquired, the operator must furnish the Division with bond coverage to guarantee the eventual plugging of the well and the satisfactory restoration of the well site. The State oil well inspectors are in attendance to supervise the plugging of all abandoned drill holes, which in 1957 numbered 2,184.

The Division furnishes copies of permits and plugging affidavits to the State Geological Survey, and is charged with the responsibility of seeing that well logs and cuttings are sent to the Survey. The Division also receives and records completion data on wells drilled.

The Rules and Regulations of the Division provide for the calling of public hearings, upon written request of any interested person, for the purpose of taking action with regard to any matter within the jurisdiction of the Department. All such hearings are made of record in the Division and are open to public inspection.

The Oil and Gas Board consists of four members and the Director of the Department, and is subject to call by the Mining Board for advice and consultation on matters pertaining to the oil and gas industry.
